The Important Hearing

You’re here as relatively unbiased– okayed by both parties. Yet seething, as we must, with prejudice from all experience, from mother’s milk, from the very air. If you’re a working politician then favors, so many financial, to be recompensed. This foregoing will have a blatant feel, but it’s second nature and goes unnoticed by your sense of decency.

Which is most real, and almost decent.
